His Presence

March 12, 2017

Introduction: This is our last lesson in this series on the Spirit. We will come back to this topic in future discussions, but this morning I want us to delve into the tension created by the words of Jesus, when he says, "I still have many things to say to you." What are the "things" Jesus must reveal? Will Jesus reveal these "things," or will that be the Spirit's role? If it's the Spirit, then when, where, what and why? Today I will ask you to dig deeply into his words, to listen carefully and be open to the Spirit's leading. The tension Jesus creates is real, but answers are there if we are willing to prod, poke and do some excavation. Are you ready?

Scripture Reading: John 16:12-15

I. Remember

"I have said all these things to you to keep you from falling away" (John 16:1).

The Spirit is a Helper, like Jesus

The Spirit is the presence of Jesus – forever

The Spirit is the Teacher, like Jesus

The Spirit is the Enlightener – helping us remember, like Jesus

The Spirit will testify, like Jesus

The Spirit will convict the world concerning sin, like Jesus

II. Tension

<sup>12</sup> "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now." <sup>13</sup> *When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. <sup>14</sup> *He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>15</sup> All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you (John 16:7–15).
